Congratulations Shanelle D'Souza

We are thrilled to announce the remarkable achievements of our multi-faceted student, Shanelle D'Souza of Year 4, over the past month and a half. She participated in her first Equestrian competition held at Al Madam Stables and did very well achieving 2nd place in Mini Polo, in Open pole bending 1st place and 3rd place in Baton race. Overall, she was awarded 2nd place in her age category. She also participated this weekend in her 1st green ball tennis tournament held at Alex Ostrovsky Academy by the UAETF and achieved 2nd place. One of her biggest achievements is the opportunity to play and interview ATP World No. 5 Andrey Rublev as he visited Dubai during the Abu Dhabi Mubadla Tennis Open 2024.

In Athletics she participated in The Ultimate Race night which takes place once every quarter, she participated in 300m and came in 4th, and participated in the long jump and came in 3rd winning her a bronze.

Shanelle is eager to join more tournaments! Join us in applauding her and wishing her the best in all her future endeavours. She is an inspiration to us all!
